THE END IN SIGHT

It Now Rests With President Mitchell to Terminate the Strike.

IMPORTANT CONCESSIONS

Decision of Individual Operators to Offer a Ten Per Cent Increase Has a Heavy Bearing.

Majority of Striking Miners Are Willing to Accept, but Wait For Mitchell to Say.

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 6.—The decision of the individual coal operators to offer a 10 per cent. increase in wages to the striking mine workers is regarded throughout the anthracite region as the beginning of the end of the strike. Nearly all the individual operators have made announcement of their willingness to grant the increase and notices to this effect were posted at the various independent collieries today. It is fully believed that the few operators who have not yet expressed their intention will fall in line with the others and grant the increase.

According to some of the operators powder will be sold to the miners at $1.50 per keg, instead of $2.75 as heretofore charged. But this reduction will be taken into consideration in figuring the net 10 per cent. advance.

No other concessions to the strikers are hinted at, and, in fact, it has been openly declared by some of the operators that no further concessions will be granted. The individual operators delayed announcing their willingness to grant the increase pending the report of a committee sent by them to New York to endeavor to secure some concession from the carrying companies. The committee was unsuccessful and so reported and the operators feeling that further opposition to the big companies was useless decided to follow their lead and grant the advance.

It is the general opinion that a great majority of the striking mine workers will be satisfied to accept the offer and return to work, but they express determination to await the decision of President Mitchell of the United Mine Workers.

NOW UP TO MITCHELL

Delay in Acceptance of Terms May Prolong Trouble Indefinitely.
Wilkesbarre, Pa., Oct. 6.—The crisis in the coal miners' strike seems to be approaching. Both sides are playing a waiting game and each imagines that it has the winning card up its sleeve.

The statement of President Maxwell of the Central Railroad of New Jersey made in New York that the companies have made all the concessions they propose to make, bears out the statement that the companies would offer no additional inducements for the men to return to work. The report from Scranton is also significant. It is said that the individual operators will all fall in line and give their employees the 10 per cent. increase granted by the big companies. According to the understanding the notices of increase are not to be posted all at the same time, but gradually. This part of the programme has now been carried out. The companies and nearly all the operators are now in line for a 10 per cent. increase.

It is now up to President Mitchell to decide what he is going to do in the matter. If he delays action, with the idea in view that the operators will make better offers, he is liable to delay a settlement of the strike indefinitely.

"After using about five bottles of Dr. Pierce's all right," writes Mr. J. W. Price, of Clark, Monroe Co., Ohio. "He was very bad when I commenced to give him the 'Golden Medical Discovery.' The doctor claimed he had consumption, and we doctored with him until he was past walking. It has been ten months since he stopped taking your medicine and he is still in good health. We are very thankful to you for saving our son." definitely. An analysis of the 10 per cent. increase offered shows that the average miner's wages would not be increased fully 10 per cent. should he return to work, but it is argued that it is better than nothing; that it is a victory after all for the strikers; that it is the entering wedge, and that if the United Mine Workers keep their organization intact they can compel the operators to make further concessions in the years to come.

A Big Mass Meeting.

Shenandoah, Pa., Oct. 6.—Arange-ments have been completed by the local branches of the United Mine Workers for a big parade and mass meeting here tonight. Invitations have been extended to all the strikers in the Shenandoah and Mahanoy valleys to take part in the affair. The principal feature of the demonstration will be an address by National President John Mitchell.

Bell Is Strengthened.

Hazleton, Pa., Oct. 6.—The belief prevalent here that the anthracite coal strike is approaching an end is considerably strengthened by the action of the individual operators in following the lead of the big coal carrying and coal mining railroads by offering a net increase of 10 per cent. in wages of their employees.

Akron Riot Indictments.

Akron, O., Oct. 6.—The special grand jury investigating the riot of August 22, reported yesterday afternoon, returning 66 true bills and indicting 45 men and boys. One of these, Councilman George Brodt, and another A.
A. Halter, are prominent politicians.
The city officials were censured for allowing the mob to assemble and for not dispersing it early in the evening.

THE YOUTSEY CASE

Defendant Outlines in Affidavit What He Expects to Prove.

Georgetown, Ky., Oct. 6.—The Youtsey trial proper began yesterday and the jury is being selected, though the job may not be completed till Monday or Tuesday, which will necessitate night sessions of the court to get through the trial in the two weeks yet remaining of the term. Besides the governing of the motion to postpone the feature of the first day's proceedings was the filing of the affidavit of Youtsey, stating what he could prove by ex-Governor W. S. Taylor, ex-Secretary of State Charles Finley, Reuben Miller, Mrs. C. E. Mason, W. J. Davidson and others, if they were present.
He affirms that Taylor, Finley, Davidson and Miller would swear that Youtsey had a gun in the office of the secretary of state on Jan. 27, solely for the purpose of defending the executive building against an expected riot or attack and that this action had no reference to Goebel or any other particular person, that Taylor and Miller would further testify that Youtsey, on entering Taylor's office a few minutes after the shooting, said in answer to inquiries, that he did not know what had happened, and that he did not state that Goebel had been shot; that Miller would also testify that at the time Youtsey did not know Wharton Golden, as Golden had stated on the stand; that Finley would testify that to his knowledge there never was but one key to the private office of the secretary of state, and that that key was turned over by him to his successor, Calhoun Powers; that Mrs.
Mason will testify that immediately after the shooting Youtsey entered the eastern door of the main hall of the executive building with his vest open so soon after the shooting that he could not have taken part in it; that all of the Breathitt county witnesses will testify that Walter R. Day said in their hearing that he knew nothing to connect Youtsey with the shooting.
This testimony is what the prosecution agreed might be read as depositions of the said witnesses.

A Terrible Epidemic.

Springfield, Ills., Oct. 6.—Dr. C. S.
Nelson, special inspector of the state board of health, and M. M. Hill, expert bacteriologist, who were sent to Ross Hill, in Jasper county, to make detailed examination of the alleged epidemic of diphtheria, made their report yesterday, revealing startling facts. There were 100 cases and 30 deaths, no quarantine and the disease spread rapidly. Tests showed the germs of the disease to exist in their worst form. An animal inoculated died in a few hours. Rigid quarantine will be established.

Soldier's Sentence Commuted.

Washington, Oct. 6.—Private Frank Miller, Company I, Twenty-third United States Infantry, was convicted by court martial at Cebu, Philippine Island of the charge of criminal assault and sentenced to be "shot to death with musketry." The president has commuted the sentence to "dishonorable discharge, forfeiture of all pay and allowances, and confinement at hard labor in a penitentiary for the period of 20 years." The penitentiary at Fort Leavenworth, Kan., will be the place of confinement.

Foul Play Suspected.

Jacksonville, Fla., Oct. 6.—E. B.
Higgins, a wealthy resident of Waldo, Fla., is reported missing. He came to Jacksonville on Sept. 15, and purchased a ticket for Marengo, Ind., where he was going to join his family. It was several days before his family ascertained that he was not at his Florida home. Higgins left Waldo with a large amount of money and his relatives believe that he has met with foul play. Members of Higgins' family have reached here to look for him.

Alleged Proposition on the Part of This Government Looking to Settlement in China.

Shanghai Opinion That Object of Recent Edicts Is Merely to Gain Time.

London, Oct. 6.—The Daily Chronicle publishes the following sent by its Washington correspondent: "The United States government has proposed to the powers to insist that Prince Tuan be beheaded; that the emperor be induced to go to Peking to form a government of progressives, under the support of European bayonets, and that the empress dowager be deposed." Even the Daily Chronicle admits that it finds considerable difficulty in believing this report.

It is reported in St. Petersburg that the Chinese fleet in Formosa straits attempted to engage the Russian armored cruiser Burik, but the latter's speed frustrated the plan. It is probable that the allied squadrons will force the Chinese fleet to capitulate or will destroy it.

Shanghai telegrams announce that the Imperial edict, dated Sept. 30, ordering the court to be removed to Si Guan Fu, was issued owing to the famine at Tai Yuan Fu, capital of the province of Shan Si. They also express the opinion that the object of the recent edicts regarding the degradation of Chinese personages of high rank is merely to gain time and to enable China to be in a better position to defy the powers as the new capital will be virtually inaccessible from the coast.

A Sop to the Conscience.

Berlin, Oct. 6.—Now that Germany has accepted the Chinese initiative in the meeting out of punishment, the opinion is expressed here that this plan offers a prospect of more effective vengeance in as much as the Chinese know the guilty parties better than the foreign minister could and will be inclined to impose severer penalties than the European conscience would tolerate.

Will Advance the Solution.

Berlin, Oct. 6.—A high official of the foreign office asserts that the second German note had met with a warm reception everywhere. "The Chinese question," said he, "will now make more rapid progress towards solution so far as the powers are concerned."

Russia Gives Assent.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 6.—The Russian government assents to the proposals in Count Von Bulow's note of Oct. 1.
M. de Giers (the Russian minister at Peking) has been instructed in that sense.

Clearing the Country of Boxers.

Shanghai, Oct. 6.—Count Von Wal-dersee has begun systematically to clear the country between Tien Tsin and Peking of Boxers.

Earl Li Is Depressed.

Shanghai, Oct. 6.—Li Hung Chang left Tien Tsin under Russian escort, deeply depressed because Count Von Waldersee refused to receive him.

THE STATE OF TRADE:

Pending Political Events Reflected In Business Situation.

New York, Oct. 6.—Bradstreet's trade review today says: Despite some irregularity both as to demand and prices, due partly to warm, rainy weather, but likewise a reflection of a hesitancy to embark largely in new business pending political events, the general tone of trade is a favorable one, and confidence as to the outlook for business in the remainder of the year is notable. Some diminution in the volume of jobbing business is noted at larger western centers, and continued rainy weather in the Northwest alike checks the movement of wheat to market, injures the grade of the same and discourages retail and jobbing distribution. The industrial outlook has been improved by the signaling of the tin plate scale, but the anthracite coal situation is on the surface at least, rather more unfavorable than a week ago, more mines and miners being idle and production steadily diminishing. The rail situation is the syncope of all eyes in the iron and steel trade. A Western road has bought 25,000 tons at Chicago and a large anthracite railroad has gone into the market at the East, but the heaviest systems have not yet contracted for their requirements.

Business failures in the United States for the week numbered 177, as against 169 last week; 148 in this week a year ago; 163 in 1898; 237 in 1897, and 291 in 1896.

They Fear a Flood.

Mangua, Nicaragua, Oct. 6.—The recent torrential rains which have been frequent, have led the people of Man-gua to fear a repetition of the flood which descended from the neighboring volcanic mountains 24 years ago and covered the principal streets of the city to a depth of five feet.

STAMPED HIM TO DEATH

Shocking Saloon Tragedy Enacted In Sullivan County.

Sullivan, Ind., Oct. 6.—John Arnott and Levi Cox, while in a drunken frenzy, became involved in a fight at William Adams' saloon on the Wabash river, in Gill township. The men had a fist encounter, and Arnott was knocked down, and Cox stamped him until he was unconscious. Parties interfered, and after some time Arnott regained consciousness, and was assisted to his wagon and started to drive to his home. He had driven but a short distance when he was seen to fall from his wagon, and the horses ran away. A party of men from the saloon ran immediately to his assistance, but he was dead upon the ground. It is supposed he was injured internally and death came suddenly while he was sitting in his wagon. Cox has not been apprehended.

The Meek Murder Trial.

Richmond, Ind., Oct. 6.—The date of the trial of William Gates, charged with the murder of James Riden Meek, of Abington township, will be set by Judge Fox within the next few days. It will in all probability take place before the end of this month.
John F. Robbins will defend Gates.

Indicted For Murder.

Crawfordsville, Ind., Oct. 6.—James Osborn has been indicted by the grand jury of Montgomery county for murder in the first degree. He is accused of killing Howard Ellis last summer.
F. P. Mount has been appointed to defend him.

Killed by His Own Gun.

Washington, Ind., Oct. 6.—Oscar Dougherty, a young man 20 years old, was instantly killed by the accidental discharge of his gun, while he was hunting near this city.

A Desperate Duel.

St. Louis, Oct. 6.—On the top of a Chicago and Alton passenger train, moving at the rate of 40 miles an hour, William Burke of this city and an unknown man fought a duel to the death last night. The two men were beating their way to Chicago. After the train left East St. Louis the stranger drew a revolver and demanded Burke's money. Burke refused to comply with the request and grappled with his antagonist. During the desperate struggle which followed, the unknown shot Burke in the side, but the latter finally managed to push him from the top of the coach. He was picked up by his skull crushed and barely alive. Burke will recover.

Not In the Play.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 6.—Thomas W.
Ross made pretense of committing suicide upon the stage of the Grand opera house, which was according to his lines in the play, yesterday. The revolver he used exploded, which was not according to the lines, with the result that Mr. Ross spent most of the afternoon and evening in the Homeopathic hospital.

Three Children Killed.

Waco, Tex., Oct. 6.—A boiler explosion at Winkfield's gin several miles east of here yesterday killed three children of Steve Wilson. One of Mr. Winkfield's children and Elvira Cunningham were badly scalded.
Henry McCracken had his arm broken in two places. Several others were slightly injured.

Row Over a Crap Game In Thomas Tolliver's Place Leads Up to His Murder.

Aggrieved Party Lies In Wait For Tolliver and Kills Him on the Street.

Washington, Ind., Oct. 6.—Thomas Tolliver, a well known sporting man of this city, was shot and killed by Thomas Gleason of Cincinnati last night. Tolliver was shot from behind and his assailant made his escape in the crowd. The man who is said to have done the shooting is a stranger, who drifted into the city to attend the street fair which is in progress here.

It is said he is one of the men who were in Tolliver's place before the murder occurred shooting craps. The gamblers, it is alleged, "rung in horses" and won a large sum of money before they were detected. They were compelled to return the money, to which Gleason objected, and in attempting to fight, was severely beaten and kicked out. He is the man, it is believed, who waited Tolliver's appearance on the street and then shot him down. One of the men, named Mathey of Indianapolis, has been placed under arrest as an accessory to the shooting. Tolliver leaves a family.

WAS GOING TOO FAST

Wabash Railway Sued For Death of Major Smith.

Delphi, Ind., Oct. 6.—Two damage suits for $10,000 were filed yesterday in the Carroll circuit court against the Wabash railroad by Craven Smith and John H. Cartwright, administrators of the estates of the late Dr. Wycliffe Smith and Francisco M. Sousa. It will be recalled that Dr. Smith and young Sousa were struck by a Wabash train on the 20th of last December, and both instantly killed. Sousa was a Cuban, whom Major Smith brought back with him from the island. Sousa's mother is living in Havana. The complaint alleges that the train was running at a rate of 75 miles an hour when it struck the buggy in which they were seated, and that no whistle or bell was sounded within 80 rods of the crossing.

Considerate For His Friends.

Union City, Ind., Oct. 6.—J. F. Smith, elected city marshal on the Ohio side by the Democracy last spring, has resigned his office, and his successor will be named by the city council. Recently Marshal Smith was called upon to make several important arrests, and among the defendants were personal friends, one of whom has been convicted and sent to Michigan City prison for misdeeds on the Indiana side. This preyed upon the city marshal's mind and fearful that other friends were involved, he tendered his resignation rather than be the instrument of their undoing.

The Order Is Resisted.

Logansport, Ind., Oct. 6.—The county commissioners have refused to enforce the board of health order that pupils in country districts be vaccinated, and trustees have been notified to allow all children to enter school. A number of schools had not been opened on account of opposition to the order, and attendance at others was unsatisfactory. Dr. Murty has been informed of the situation.

Caught by a Reaper.

Valparaiso, Ind., Oct. 6.—At Ross Station, John Johnson, 70 years old, went out in the field where his son was mowing. The horses became frightened and ran away, and Johnson was caught by the sickle. Both of his limbs were cut off, and he bled to death before physicians could be summoned.

Wanted at Laporte.

Laporte, Ind., Oct. 6.—Gov. Mount will be asked for requisition papers for the return to this county of Bert Sen-yard, who is in jail at St. Joe, Mich., for trial for grand larceny. Senyard was arrested in a Chicago theatre, where he was playing the role of a villain in a melodrama.

Indiana Synod.

Crawfordsville, Ind., Oct. 6.—The Presbyterian Synod of Indiana will hold its annual session here on Oct. 8, 9 and 10. It will be the first delegatmeeting in the history of the body, and a large attendance is expected.

Ice Cream Proved Fatal.

Elkhart, Ind., Oct. 6.—Clara Tremmerhoff, aged 5, convalescing from an attack of diphtheria, was given a dish of ice cream by her parents. Ten minutes after partaking of the frigid stuff the child was dead.

WHY MRS. PINKHAM

Is Able to Help Sick Women When Doctors Fail.

How gladly would men fly to woman's aid did they but understand a woman's feelings, trials, sensibilities, and peculiar organic disturbances.

Those things are known only to women, and the aid a man would give is not at his command.

To treat a case properly it is necessary to know all about it, and full information, many times, cannot be given by a woman to her family physician.

Mrs. G. H. CHAPPELL.

She cannot bring herself to tell everything, and the physician is at a constant disadvantage. This is why, for the past twenty-five years, thousands of women have been confiding their troubles to Mrs. Pinkham, and whose advice has brought happiness and health to countless women in the United States.

Mrs. Chappell, of Grant Park, Ill., whose portrait we publish, advises all suffering women to seek Mrs. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as they cured her of inflammation of the ovaries and womb; she, therefore, speaks from knowledge, and her experience ought to give others confidence. Mrs. Pink-<

REPUBLICAN POLICY.

1896.—OPEN THE MILLS.

1900.—KEEP THEM OPEN.

THEIR RECORD.

The record of the Bryan crowd on trusts does not conform with their speech at this time. They have opposed every anti-trust measure before congress. Mr. Olney, Cleveland's attorney general, said an amendment to the constitution was necessary before there could be any further effective legislation against trusts. Bryan said the same thing at Chicago last year. A resolution for such an amendment was proposed by the republicans at the last session of congress. This anti-trust measure reads as follows:

"SECTION 1. All powers conferred by this article shall extend to the several States, the territories, the District of Columbia, and all territory under the sovereignty and subject to the jurisdiction of the United States. SECTION 2. Congress shall have power to define, regulate, prohibit, or dissolve trusts, monopolies or combination, whether existing in the form of a corporation, or otherwise. The several States may continue to exercise such power in any manner not in conflict with the laws of the United States."

SECTION 3. Congress shall have power to enforce the provisions of this article by appropriate legislation. It requires a two-thirds majority for congress to pass an amendment to the constitution, therefore the republicans could not pass the amendment without some votes from the democrats. Every democrat in congress but two voted against this anti-trust measure two and all the republicans but five voted for it. It failed because of the organized opposition of the democrats. Congressman Griffith and every other democrat in congress from Indiana voted against this anti-trust measure. Every republican congressman from Indiana voted for it. Thus has Griffith recorded his vote in congress in favor of trusts. Nathan Powell would not have made such a mistake.

EX-PRESIDENT HARRISON will be heard before the campaign closes. How disappointed are the Bryanites. They had hoped he would keep still.

BRYAN'S reception in Indiana is not so enthusiastic as it was four years ago. And no wonder. He is no longer regarded as sincere in his utterances.

The republican party proposes to keep the mills open. The republican party proposes to maintain a sound financial system. The republican party proposes to maintain the broadest markets possible for the products of the American factory. Thus will prosperity continue. What does the opposition promise.

DR. WM. T. WALLS, of Hanover, a former democrat of prominence declares in an open letter for McKinley. He voted for Bryan four years ago, though he did not accept all his theories. Under McKinley he says:

"We have risen to a position which ranks with the best governments on the face of the earth, notwithstanding all prophecies by such men as William Jennings Bryan. I am proud of the present prospering conditions and will vote for McKinley and a renewal of his policy of expansion."

POLITICAL BREVITIES.

Col. W. T. Durbin, Auditor of state W. H. Hart and District Attorney A. W. W. Ward were here last evening on their way to Indianapolis from Bedford. Only a few knew of their coming.

† † † Capt. Newton W. Gilbert, republican nominee for lieutenant governor will be in Jackson county Friday and Saturday, October 12 and 13. His assignments will be decided upon and announced as soon as possible. Captain Gilbert is a superb gentleman and Jackson county republicans are pleased to have two days of his time.

† † † The Powell Marching Club, the one of which Arthur Grae is president, kept open house at their rooms in the opera house last night. They opened their books for the enrollment of new members and over seventy signed the roll.

The ladies of the First Baptist church served supper at the home of Mrs. Humes on East Third street last evening, which was well patronized. The net profits amounted to more than twenty-five dollars which shows that it was very successfully managed.

Henry Warrum Spoke.

Quite a crowd of men, women and children came down town last evening to see John W. Kern, democratic candidate for governor. But they were disappointed for Kern was not here. Billy Humes had excused Kern but did not let the rank and file of his party know anything about it. Nothing of the change of program was published in the Democrat. So the crowd came down to see Kern. Humes, Swope & Co. expected Leon Bailly, Kern's former law partner, but Bailly did not come. Henry Warrum, who was defeated for supreme court reporter in 1896 and for clerk in 1898, proved to be the substitute. An audience filling the opera house was there to hear Kern, but heard Warrum. Many of those present heard him talk free silver in 1896. He does not talk free silver now, but he talks calamity as much now as he did then. He seems to have little faith in the American people and would have them accept a policy that would narrow the sovereignty of the United States and narrow the markets for the products of the factories and farms of this country.

Educators Here.

Prof. A. R. Charman, of Terre Haute, Superintendent Horace Ellis, of Franklin, Supt. W. F. Axtell, of Washington, and Supt. Levi Scott, of New Albany, were here today to confer with Prof. H. C. Montgomery about the meeting of the Southern Indiana Teachers Association in this city next April 4, 5, and 6. They are all members of the executive committee and are here to make preliminary arrangements.

This meeting will be of great importance and will bring a thousand teachers or more to this city for three days. The people should begin to prepare for it in due time, for much of the success of the meeting will depend on the interest of our citizens.

Successful Meeting.

The Jackson township Sunday school association met at New Bedford Friday night. Reports on Sunday school work were made, followed by interesting discussions. There was a good attendance. The following officers for the ensuing year were chosen:

President, J. E. Graham.

Vice president, John Russell.

Secretary, W. R. Riddick.

Supt. Home Dept., Henry Hodapp.

Treasurer, Owen Roeger.

Averse to Work.

Tobe Reeves, who escaped while working out a fine and assaulted Street Commissioner Welsh with a brick last Sunday, refuses so far to work since he was recaptured. He is kept closely confined in his cell and will probably want exercise and change his mind in a few days.

S. I. Change of Time.

Beginning Sunday, October 7, the Southern Indiana will discontinue its passenger train service east of Seymour, and the local freights will carry all passengers east of Seymour. Also the train from the west which now arrives at 11:35 a. m. will be changed to arrive at 3:25 p. m. as it did formerly.

DIED.

HOFFMAN.—The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Hoffman died last night. Funeral from the residence this afternoon at 1 o'clock.

A gentle rain set in here this morning and has continued slowly all day.

The Fairview congregation has employed Rev. David T. Newsom to preach for them.

Elder Thos. Jones left for New Winchester, Hendricks county, where he will preach Sunday.

A stranger was run in by the police last night and awaits trial on the charge of intoxication.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury.

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is tenfold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Company, Toledo, Ohio, contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. Sold by druggists, price 75c. per bottle.

Hall's Family Pills are the best.

A Wonderful Offer to Women.

Taking the fact that next year begins a new century, The Delineator offers to distribute $17,500 among 1901 women. The plan is so cleverly arranged that a woman living in a small town or village has just as good a chance to win one of these 1901 prizes as a woman living in a city—because the prizes are given for the number of subscriptions secured in a town in proportion to the population of that town instead of being given simply to those who send the largest list of subscribers—which, of course, are most easily obtained in big cities. The cities of the greatest population are grouped in class 1, and as these cities are not very many, the prizes offered are twenty-eight; the highest prize being $500, and the lowest $5. The total amount of prizes given away in this class is $1,000. The remaining small-er towns and villages fall into six other classes, and as the number of towns in a class increases the amount of prizes given away to a class increases, so that in class 7, there will be $4,000 distributed among 601 winners.

SYSTEMIC CATARRH.

Thousands Suffer From It and Do Not Know It.

Hon. A. T. Wimberly, Collector of the Port of New Orleans, La., and member of the National Republican Committee, in writing of Per-na, says:

Hon. A. T. Wimberly.

"Per-na Drug Mfg Co., Columbus, O."

"Gentlemen—I have used Per-na and can gladly recommend it as being all you represent. I wish that every man who is in need of a good tonic could know of it. I would advise all such to take it now, and am sure it would never be regretted."

A. T. Wimberly.

Per-na is an internal remedy—a scientific remedy for catarrh. It cures catarrh wherever located. It cures last. Per-na gives strength by stopping waste. By saving the mucus it enriches the blood. By cleansing the mucous membranes it preserves the vital force.

A constant drain of mucus from the system is known as systemic catarrh. This may occur from any organ of the body. Systemic catarrh is more common in spring and summer than in the winter.

Dr. Rachel A. Magaw, 67 West Jefferson Street, Springfield, Ohio: "Your Per-na is worth its weight in gold. I feel like a new woman. I can't praise it enough. I spent a great deal of money on doctors, but nothing ever did me any good until I sent to you and tried your Per-na. I now feel well of the catarrh."

Ralph W. Chulip, of La Porte, Ind., says the following as regards Per-na for catarrh: "I had been troubled with the catarrh for the past eight years. I became so bad a year and a half ago that I took treatment from two different specialists on catarrh. The discharge from my head was dreadful. Finally my stomach became affected, and eight months ago I had to quit work. I lost in weight from 165 pounds to 140. I was completely discouraged. I procured a bottle of Per-na and had not taken half the bottle, when, to my joy and surprise, I began feeling better. My head began to get better; the discharge began to dry up. I kept on, and have now taken two bottles. I have resumed my work, have a good appetite, and have not felt better in ten years. I am now 30, and I thank Per-na for the way I feel to-day."

James H. Eckles Gives Reasons For Repudiating Bryan.

A BUSINESS PROPOSITION

Questions For Those Who Have Vital Interests at Stake.

Dignified Arrangement of the Political Demagogues Who Are Preaching the Gospel of Discontent, Arraying Class Against Class and Proclaiming Doctrines of Disastrous Import—An Appeal For the Preservation of the Nation's Dearest Traditions Presented With Force and Logic.

Among conservative Democrats generally the address of the Hon. James H. Eckles, ex-controller of the treasury, delivered in Chicago, has attracted much attention. In his calm, logical and dignified repudiation of the "Bryanized and emasculated Democracy" Mr. Eckles submitted reasons for his act, which may well command the attention and interest of all thoughtful citizens of the republic.

Mr. Eckles said in part: "I propose in this campaign, as a Democrat, to support William McKinley, the nominee of the Republican party, for re-election to the presidential office, and on that behalf I am on this platform.

"The fact may well challenge the thoughtful attention of every laboring man that no where do the declarations of principles of the Democratic party as today constituted, or the utterances of the Democratic candidate appeal to any business interest, whether that interest be small or great. In every section of the country business men, no matter what the calling, repudiate them as violative of all sound rules of business conduct and destructive of those underlying principles upon which the common welfare of the successful commercial world must rest. On analysis the laboring men will find that this almost universal rejection of Bryanism by those who are conducting the great affairs of finance, of manufacturing, of trade and commerce, and who in the very order of things are giving the largest measure of employment to labor, does not arise from a selfish, a political or class prejudice, as Mr. Bryan would have them believe, because neither enter into the forming of that opinion. It is their knowledge of the subject, gained through study and their knowledge gained through experience in transacting business affairs, which uniformly unite in a verdict against the issue promulgated by a debauched Democracy and a theorizing Populism. They do not wish to evade any legal responsibility, to pay less than their just proportion of taxes, to treat unjustly their employees, or deal unfairly with the public. They want only stability in money, equity in law, and wisdom of word and action in the executive. They distrust Mr. Bryan, because he has made it impossible for them to trust him.

A Fate Question.

"The questions which I submit with confidence to the laboring man is, who has most at stake in this country, the business man whose energy, thrift and venture of capital, has made possible its greatness, or the political demagogues who are going up and down the country preaching a gospel of discontent, arraying class against class and proclaiming doctrines, which, if enforced, would bring widespread and far-reaching disaster upon every interest which now stands for the use of capital and the employment of labor? Who today are employing the thousands upon thousands of men in mine and mill, in furnace and factory, upon railroads and the waters, in store and office? Are they the Bryans or the Tillmans, the Altgelds, or the Weavers, the Townes or the Crokers? I call your attention to the fact that these men and all their associates who write the platforms, map out the policies and control the action of the Democratic party as today that party reveals itself, are men who know no calling but politics and contribute nothing to the support of their fellows beyond the emoluments of such political offices as they may by chance secure. If once eliminated from politics they will find, like Othello, their occupation gone. I assert that these men are not as well equipped either in word or deed, to so well counsel with labor as are those who are in the daily life of business undertakings. I assert with still greater emphasis that any party which by wounding itself to unreason and destructive doctrines, has so completely eliminated all employers of labor from its councils, and made impossible their support of its candidates, is not to be trusted with the power to legislate for either labor or capital. Its influence would be injurious to the interests of both; its acts destructive to that financial fabric, the maintenance of the integrity of which is essential to the well-being of all. Remember you citizens, who toll day in and day out and thereby uphold the country, I beg of you to remember before you give in adhesion to the cause of Mr. Bryan and his party as against the advice of the business world, that by so doing you embrace the tenets of a party solely of politicians, controlled wholly for the benefit of politicians and by politicians alone. I do not believe as a business proposition you can, from the standpoint of your own good and the good of those dependent upon you, afford to take the risk to which you are invited. I am certain, despite some individual injustice here and individual injustice there, you are better off at present and will be in the future, by acting with those who employ labor and not making common cause with men who neither themselves labor outside of the realm of politics for their own advancement, nor give employment to others.

Another Phase of the Question.

"But there is another phase of this question which we cannot overlook. If Mr. Bryan stands for any one thing more than another it is in his antagonism to all forms of aggregated wealth. If he is to be believed the country is menaced by the fact that each returning year shows the American people to have accumulated greater wealth. He selects, above all else, the bank, as the institution which threatens most and the banker as finding his source of employment in enriching himself at the expense of distressing poverty to his fellows. I submit, without fear of successful contradiction, that a bank, whether it be national, state or private one, properly conducted and honestly managed, instead of being the cause of detriment to any community or harmful to any interest, public or private, is a source of strength and benefit. I allege further that no one is more benefited by such institutions than labor. Over and above the distinctive feature of the good of savings departments, providing a safe and profitable place for labor's earnings, rests the greater good accomplished by the bank in gathering to itself the surplus money of the country which would lie in idleness, and directing it into proper channels of trade and commerce, thus making it possible to carry on the thousand undertakings which furnish the daily wage of labor.

In the debasement of the currency of the country and in that general assault upon banks which would follow the inauguration of Mr. Bryan's policies, nowhere would the disaster fall more quickly and more completely than upon savings institutions. The injury done to the creditors of national banks would be comparatively no greater than that done to those of savings ones, though such could better stand it. I deny the doctrine of Mr. Bryan that the banker prospers in the distresses of the people, as unreason in reason and untrue in fact. Does Mr. Bryan dare assert that the banker increased his riches in 1893 and the years immediately following, when failure was to be noted in every section of the country and labor everywhere idle? If he does he has failed to study the statistics of those days, for then was demonstrated the economic truth of the interdependent relations of capital and labor in periods of depression and prosperity.

Can Be No Money Trust.

"There can be no money trust on the part of the banks of this country to the loss of the people. What has been the result of the multiplying of banks, the enlarging of banking capital, the increase in available bank deposits? The small borrower today buys his borrowed money for 6 per cent instead of 8, the farmer his mortgage money at 5, and all because this moneyed octopus, which Mr. Bryan and his political adherents decry, has increased in strength and spread its operations everywhere. The interest rate has fallen from 12 to 4 per cent and less. What has labor lost by this? Surely nothing, for in the cheapening of the rate of money and credit, the use of which the banker sells to the man of business, his employer has been enabled to take on a wider scope of operation and increase the number of those he employs.

"The national banks have been the cheapening force in lowering interest rates by educating the people to a general use of banks, and thereby making capital available. It has given to the people a currency absolutely safe and everywhere current. Mr. Bryan, if the truth were known, attacks that currency, not because of the power to issue it being lodged in the national banks, but because he stands as the nominee in the first instance of a political organization which is against a redeemable currency. The party to which he is most closely allied is the party of irredeemable greenbacks and kindred flat issues, and Mr. Bryan as their special champion assaults the note issue of the national banks in order to pave the way for a government note possessing no other value than the stamp of the federal government. The wild vagaries of the Greenback party were defeated more than 20 years ago. Are the American people now willing to resurrect them and vitalize an issue then held to be productive only of harm.

Bryan's Statesmanship.

"The difficulty with Mr. Bryan's statesmanship is that it is a statesmanship of prejudice, class distinctions and misinformation. It is a statesmanship which takes no thought of the morrow, but contents itself with the political advantage of today. I venture the statement that in all the range of American political annals there never has appeared a public man who has floundered so many different questions with so much misinformation. The leadership of Mr. Bryan found its origin in the peculiar conditions of the world of business and labor four years since. It has maintained itself, because in the Bryanizing of the organization, the Democracy has been denuded of every leader of thought, sagacity and high political principle. It has now neither ability for political organization, nor capacity for wise, safe or conservative constructive legislation. In the last analysis the leadership of Mr. Bryan demonstrates itself to begin and end in the denunciation of the existing order of things. Is it safe to trust the governmental control of a great nation in the keeping of a man who sees nowhere anything to command; who is quick to charge conspiracy and dishonesty upon great numbers of people, who in daily life draw to themselves the respect of all their fellows? What thoughtful and inquiring citizen will from a knowledge of Mr. Bryan's past erroneous discussion of these paramount economic problems believe him capable of bringing about a proper solution of the present ones? In the campaign upon which we have now entered the Democratic candidate changing from the issue announced at the opening as paramount, has taken up the discussion of the trust question. I do not mistake the fact, I think, when I say he is discussing this issue in the manner which has characterized all the other discussions with which he has favored the public.

"He does not undertake to go into the merit of the question, for that would not be Bryanese. He knows that such a course must eliminate the political advantage which he seeks for his party to his own advancement, and therefore he does not make it. The argument which he makes is addressed to prejudice, backed up by misstatements, illogical in presentation and unfair in deduction. There is no man of any prominence today standing in defense of illegal combinations of capital, whether great or small, formed for the purpose of throttling all competition, raising the price of articles of consumption, and burdening the people. But there are a vast number who, recognizing the economic soundness in the added volume of business to be obtained through aggregated capital, properly brought together and wisely managed, deny that from such any harm flows to either the consumer or the laborer. They go further, and assert, with an emphasis not to be mistaken, that far from being harmful, such combinations are on the contrary productive of good, most of all to the laboring man. I am not speaking for combinations, illegal, unsound or unsafe, but solely for those which, though large in the amount of capital invested, have regard for all the rules which control in all the ordinary business affairs. On principle I do not perceive why there is more harm or danger to the interest of the citizen because a thousand men are employed by one concern instead of one hundred, or one million dollars of capital invested rather than one thousand.

Disregard of Economic Truth.

"The misinformation which is on every hand upon this subject has arisen from an insistence upon a discussion in the light of partisan politics instead of in that of economic truth and history. If those who are now protesting so vigorously against what they deem the baneful effects of so called trusts, would better inform themselves we would have more reason and less recalculation from press and platform. I am sure I do not misdefine the term when I say that what the concentration of capital or labor, or capital and labor for a specific, legitimate purpose. It is the unification of the resources of many for the common welfare. In political life it ultimately assumes the form of government; in finance it results in systems of banking, upholding the transactions of the business world; in transportation it finds fruition in railroads and steamboat lines; industrially it evidences itself in manufacturing plants, in mines and mining and the thousand forms of industry which make for an advanced state of civilization. It is, I assert, the highest development of a complicated and efficient form of civilization, made more manifest as man is more and more removed from the influence of ignorance and barbarism.

"As long as conflicting interests wage war upon one another, with capital diversified with labor struggling to adjust wages, with many heads instead of a few, with policies and methods all at variance, it was impossible for us to enter successfully in competition with nations where the capital employed was larger and the wage paid cheaper. In all this evolution in our industrial world, I assert that no loss has come to labor. The economies introduced have not reached him. On the other hand, whatever changes have been wrought, and there have been many, have been to his advantage. His more general and steadier employment during the past few years attest this fact. The saving which has been made under the new order of things has been in dispensing with the cost of middlemen and unnecessary management is to his benefit. If the prices at the outset to the consumer were increased, it arose more from extraordinary and immediate demands after the years of retrenchment and idleness, and not from other causes. As that abnormal condition passes away, and we settle down to a normal one, two things will become manifest. First, a cheapened price to the consumer, with a lessened profit to the manufacturer; second, little or no disturbance in the wage of the employee, despite the falling market to the employer. The reason for such a state, hitherto unknown, rests in aggregated capital having now the ability to gather to itself world-wide markets, finds its source of gain in the large increasing of its volume of business at a lessened individual profit. As an offset, in the increased volume the manufacturer will look for his dividends and not in a reduction of labor cost.

"If combination of capital neither increases the price to the consumer nor diminishes the number of laborers, nor the amount of wage, it cannot be either a menace to society or a detriment to the public good. It certainly does not present such a situation in the country's affairs as to demand unusual laws or extraordinary action. The laws which apply to the dealings of daily business life I deem sufficient, the laws which make requisite common honesty and fair dealing between man and man.

A Cunning Subterfuge.

"It seems to me there is no justification for all this hue and cry of imperialism and threatened militarism. It is an issue conceived and uttered by the opposition to divert from the real things at stake, to conceal the purposes that those who are in the confidence of Mr. Bryan, to make for their plans at home and not work out reforms abroad. Who, knowing Mr. Bryan, analyzing his mind, following the course of his career, passing impartial judgment upon his declaration on any question, will believe him capable of heading an administration which can carry out a successful foreign policy? How is it possible for Mr. Bryan, wrong on all things at home, to be right on all things abroad? But his position upon the Philippines is not one that entitles him to consideration. He did make possible the acquisition of the Philippines by insisting upon the ratification of the Paris treaty, and now when it, his act, returns to plague him, undertakes to disprove his responsibility by asserting that his action was based upon the idea of making more manifest the dangers of imperialism. Why make it more manifest? Why jeopardize, if his present position is correct, the liberties of the Philippines by creating more evidence of title for the United States to the land he claims is theirs? Why? Simply that Mr. Bryan might have another issue in his presidential campaign. If he states the truth, that he was against it all the time but yielded to make more manifest the issue of imperialism, he stood for politics then as he does now, for partisan purposes then as he does now, for self aggrandizement then as he does now. He was not patriotic then and he is not now.

Bryan's Vagaries Repudiated.

"I was not in favor of the war with Spain. I believed it to be a mistake, but having entered upon it, I do not see in the light of all the facts as presented by the records that things could have been different. I was opposed to colonial expansion, but that expansion is an accomplished fact, made so largely by Mr. Bryan's co-operation and dealing with conditions as they are and not as they might have been. I prefer to trust the wisdom and experience of President McKinley, backed by a party that yet retains some conservative elements in it, to the vagaries of Mr. Bryan. Supported by an organization which boasts that within its circle the radical rule and there is neither use nor place for the conservative. The public must not forget that Mr. Bryan's supporters in Congress urged on the war with Spain; that Mr. Bryan's friends gave their requisite vote to ratify the treaty. The speeches of Democrats were the speeches making for blood and fire before the war, their votes after its conclusion bespoke either their hypocrisy or their belief in the wisdom of the treaty which they were aiding in ratifying, a treaty the provisions of which, judged by their present utterances, they did not believe in and the result of which they now profess to see them, they condemn. The policy which Mr. Bryan announces for the Philippines, if elected president, to convene Congress to create stable government for them and establish a Monroe doctrine protectorate over them, the public knows to be idle. The great mass of the American people know that it is impossible to accomplish these things until conditions as to education, guarantee of property rights and safety of personal ones warrant such action. However, many the errors of judgment made which wrought the condition which now presents itself in the colony the country is not willing without taking thought, to set adrift, though retaining a full protecting responsibility for their acts, any people who have come to us through the Spanish war, educated in Spanish ways and grown in Spanish practices. Mr. Bryan and his friends misjudge popular sentiment if they think that upon such an issue they can blind the electors of the country to those things which affecting the immediate country, are more paramount than any involved in the issue they now attempt to create. The dangers of military authority here, of lessened liberty to the American people, of enlarged power to the army, do not now and will not in the future exist, for patriotism everywhere and at all times has been the priceless heritage of the people and will continue to be for centuries yet to come. With each returning year it is a better condition will, through American influences, be worked out for the people of our foreign possessions, until, fitted for a larger liberty, they take their place in the galaxy of republics. But it will come about only through wisdom of act, statesmanlike legislation and education. It will not be the fruit of designing demagogues, partisan politicians, and self-enriching spoliars. When that day comes there is no patriotic citizen of the republic but who will gladly acclaim 'Hail and farewell.'

A Word In Conclusion.

"In conclusion, a single word and this address is finished. It is a word for those Democrats who have not bowed the knee to or placed upon the neck the yoke of the men who have made an honorable party a hissing and a by-word. In accepting Republican candidates now, they assume no other attitude than that which they took in the first instance, when Populism defiled the Democratic temple. They justify their course now as they did then, believing that their highest duty as citizens as well as party men makes any other action impossible. They do not believe in any of Mr. Bryan's views on the one hand, but on the other they approve of much that President McKinley has done. I believe an unbiased consideration by Gold Democrats of all that has been done by the administration under times of unusual stress, will lead to the conclusion that their efforts in that behalf were at least worth while, and that much has been accomplished of great benefit to the country in many of its varied and important interests. The administration of President McKinley has been successful in making more secure the gold standard through enacted law and in refunding much of the public debt. It has maintained the national credit and improved the country's banking system. It has sustained the country's well being at home and its dignity abroad. Upon the issues as made up it ought to and it will receive the approval of that

Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys are your blood purifiers, they filter out the waste or impurities in the blood. If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work. Pains, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble.

Kidney trouble causes quick or unsteady heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries. It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble. If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail. Home of Swamp-Root, free, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

body of voters who either within or without the lines of organized political affiliation know their rights and dare those rights maintain.

"Fellow citizens, in the interest of good government, conservative administration and economic laws, full and fair regard for personal and property rights, the elimination of class distinctions, the wiping out of class prejudice, the dignity and power of law, I ask you to sustain the administration and defend the Bryanized and emasculated Democracy. In such a course lies assurance of preserving for your children's children, untarnished in all their integrity, those best traditions of the republic which in the past have added a splendid luster to American citizenship and people, and in the future will gain for them a still greater weight of glory."

A MOTHER'S GRATITUDE.

Many a Mother in Seymour Will Appreciate the Following.

Many a strong man and many a healthy woman has much for which to thank mother. The care taken during their childhood brought them past the danger point and made them healthy men and women. Children are generally bothered at some period with incontinence of urine and inability to retain it is of times called a habit. It is not the children's fault, the difficulty lies with the kidneys and can be readily righted. If taken in the proper way, a Seymour mother shows you how.

Mrs. M. Moritz, of East Fifth street, says: "I sent my daughter to C. W. Milbous' drug store to get Doan's Kidney Pills for her little sister afflicted with weak kidneys. I gave them to her and I never had a more satisfactory result from any medicine. It was such a release from embarrassment to the child and took a large amount of extra work off me. This had been going on for a long while and nothing that I could do for her seemed to do any good. As for the price, 50 cents per box, to me, ten dollars a box would have been cheap judging from their merits. The child is perfectly sound as regards the kidneys. It is four months since I gave them, I can conscientiously recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to mothers."

Sold for 50 cents per box, by all dealers. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name Doan's and take no substitute.

A REMARKABLE CANVASS

Governor Roosevelt Beginning to Show Signs of Strain.

Rock Island, Ills., Oct. 6.—Two immense meetings were addressed by Gov. Roosevelt last evening, one at Davenport, Ia., and the other at Rock Island, Ills. At Davenport the governor spoke for about half an hour in a tent in the western limits of the city. Immediately upon the conclusion of his remarks at that place he was driven to Rock Island, where a great street parade was arranged. People lined the streets on all sides for several miles. Here he spoke for not more than 20 twenty minutes. Gov. Roosevelt since he began his itinerary through the northwestern states has been speaking from 10 to 20 times each day, closing the day's labors usually with a night meeting. Many of these meetings have been in the open air, requiring extra exertion on his part. He has now been on this journey for more than 30 days and though strong beyond the powers of most men, he is beginning to show signs of distress and a failing voice. If some relief is not afforded him his physical powers, though great, may be unable to stand the strain to the end of the campaign.

Charged With Embezzlement.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 6.—F. W. Sears, widely known in Kansas City, has been arrested, charged with embezzlement while acting president of the National Reserve association, a fraternal order. He was placed under $5,000 bond to appear for preliminary trial. A few weeks ago rumors went around in the order that Sears was not managing things as he should, and Superintendent of Insurance O'neal sent an examiner here to investigate. The examiner found several alleged irregularities and Supt. O'neal called on resident Sears for an explanation, whereupon Sears moved the headquarters of the order to Denver, beyond O'neal's jurisdiction. When he appeared at the convention of the order he was promptly arrested on complaint of the newly elected president, N. B. Vaughn. He is accused of misappropriating $5,000.

A Disgusted Populist.

The Populist candidate for governor of Texas has withdrawn from the ticket and written a letter in which he roundly denounces the Democracy party for its inconsistency. At Bryan's statement that the republican form of government he is particularly scathing, saying the Democrats are the only organized party that ever deliberately shot to death the American flag, that enslaved its free born. It forced the war with Spain and then obstructed the appropriations to pay for it. It voted to ratify the treaty with Spain and pay $20,000,000 for the Philippines and has ever since been clamoring to turn them loose and shake the responsibility. As a former Democrat the Hon. Jerome C. Kearby has drawn a severe but truthful indictment against the Aguinaldo sympathizers.

We have but one duty to perform, and that is to stand by the flag.—William McKinley.

Bryan and Free Speech.

Mr. Bryan's great love for free speech was not on tap when his Kentucky friends turned out and threw three bad eggs at that distinguished Democrat, the Hon. John G. Carlisle. At least the Democratic nominee offered no protest at the time and later proceeded to that state and made speeches for the egg throwers.

When labor is employed at fair wages, homes are made happy.—William McKinley.

Stevenson Likes Office.

Those persons who cannot understand why the Hon. Adlai E. Stevenson can run on the Kansas City platform after indorsing sound money in 1892 simply admit that they are not acquainted with the record of the man. Mr. Stevenson is fond of holding office.

Another Vaccination Victim.

WINE OF CARDUI

THE LINK THAT BINDS.

JACKSON, TENN., Nov. 28.

I was subject to miscarriage for three years, and suffered constantly with backache. I wrote to you for advice, and after using three bottles of Wine of Cardui, according to your directions, I am strong and well, and the mother of a fine girl baby.

Mrs. E. N. JOWERS.

WINE OF CARDUI

There is no use talking— a baby in the house is the link that binds husband and wife together. Nothing is sadder than fruitless wedlock. The prattling and cooing of the little ones offset a thousand times the occasional worries and trials of life. When a wife is barren, there is a derangement somewhere in the genital organs, caused by one or more of those common disorders known as "female troubles." Wine of Cardui is the remedy. It puts the organs of generation in a strong and healthy condition, fitting the wife for the sacred duty of reproducing her kind. During the period of gestation the entire system of the expectant mother is built up to withstand the ordeal of labor, and when the little one makes its advent it is lusty and strong, well-fitted to grow to maturity in perfect health. The mother, too, passes through the trial with little pain and no dread. Wine of Cardui is truly a wonderful medicine for women.

Large Bottles for $1.00 at Druggists.
